AT OUR SILVER LEVER WATCH at Rs. 35 before buying, and you will give it the preference before any other.

The Watch as it is now, is the result of 20 years experience in the Indian watch trade, and we guarantee it to be the most perfect watch ever offered to the public for such a small outlay.

Being the manufacturers ourselves, the buyer obtains the watch from first hand. This explains its cheapness.

The Watches are of medium size in heavy engine turned silver cases, either hunting or half hunting. Guarantee 3 years.

THE SCIENTIFIC SYSTEM OF DRESS CUTTING ENABLES
EVERY LADY TO BE HER OWN DRESSMAKER

BY this system you can cut any garment worn by Lady or child without the use of any paper patterns and with a saving of from 1½ to 3 yards of material. With the scientific system no trouble is incurred, if the instructions are followed (which any person can master without the least trouble) it is impossible to make a misfit. The system has been tested in all kinds of forms, and it will never fail to make a perfect fit.

Mrs. VOGEL, sole agent for the Scientific System, guarantees to instruct any lady, in a few easy lessons how to cut from measure, any garment worn by lady or child, so that it will fit perfectly without alteration.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 9.

THE weather continues very disappointing. Yesterday gave every promise of a steady general rain, but not only has the fall here been light, but from all we can learn there has been almost nothing in the districts where it is most wanted. In Khandesh and West Berar a few light showers are reported, registering in some places 10 and others 20 cents, but to put matters right and give the crops a good start, inches, not cents, are wanted throughout the greater part of this Presidency.

The most important item, in a commercial sense, in yesterday's London telegrams is the result of the tenders for the new 3 per cent. Sterling Loan. According to Reuter it was applied for two-and-a-half times, and tenders at £86-6-6 received 32 per cent. The average rate is not given, but it will probably be about £86 per cent., equivalent to borrowing at 3½ per cent. at par—a fairly favourable result, all things considered. It certainly shows that the credit of India in the London Market ranks much higher than the Secretary of State hinted at in the despatch of 19th February last on the proposed Bombay Dock Extension loan, and affords a most conclusive answer to all arguments as to the extent of money which could be raised in sterling for reproductive works. As to the advisability of borrowing in gold, however, that is another question. The return obtained in London yesterday, as we pointed out three days ago, is exactly the same, taking the exchange on the interest into account, as borrowing in silver at 4¼ per cent., or in other words, issuing a 4 per cent. loan at 89, with the one important difference that in the latter case the principal would remain a silver, not a gold, liability. This would be of comparatively little importance if there was any certainty that silver had nearly seen the lowest as compared with gold, but with the possibility of the repeal of the Bland Bill in America at no distant date, and indeed an absolute uncertainty as to where Silver may ultimately go to before finding a rallying point, Government would, we think, have done well to borrow at least a crore of their requirements in rupees; and that, we take it, might have been accomplished in the neighbourhood of Rs. 90 for four per cent. paper.

CONSOLS in London yesterday were unchanged at 99⅜, but the 3½ per cent. Indian Sterling Loan was ¼ higher at 102, 4 per cent. Rupee Paper ½ lower at 77½. Money in the open market appears to be slightly firmer at 1⅛ per cent. both for 3 and 6 months' sight bills, at least that is the deduction we draw from Reuter's somewhat contradictory quotations.

In the General Produce quotations from home under yesterday's date, the only change reported is a partial decline of 3d. per quarter in Calcutta Linseed to arrive.

The Liverpool Cotton market continues steady in tone, the sales yesterday having been 7,000 bales, including the comparatively large proportion of 1,000 bales Surats. Spot prices still come unaltered, but American deliveries have recovered the previous day's partial decline of 1-64d., and in New York futures are quoted 5 points higher.

In this market the tone keeps steady, but prices are unchanged, and there is next to nothing doing for export. Some Khamgaum Omras are reported to have changed hands at Rs. 195 for Good and Rs. 185 for F. G. F., but only to a small extent. The receipts for the week ending to-day are only totalled at about 8,000 bales.

WHEAT is dull and if anything easier. For No. 1 Soft White Peas we quote Rs. 3-12½ and No. 1 Club Delhi Rs. 3-10½ per cwt. railway terms, but there are rather sellers than buyers now at these figures.

SEEDS are quiet at unchanged prices.

FREIGHTS are very stagnant, the engagements of the past few days having been insignificant. Rates, which are the turn lower, may be quoted as follows :—

	Wheat, Meast.
Liverpool.....	Ready 17-6 to 18-9	20
Open Charter....	,, 22-6
Havre	,, 21-3	22-6.
Antwerp	,, ..
Trieste-Venice	,, ..	30.

EXCHANGE.—Reuter reports the result of the biddings for Council drafts in London yesterday as Rs. 10,20,000 having been allotted in bills at an average of 1s. 6 8 8d., tenders at 1s. 6 13-16d. receiving 20 per cent. It seems probable that there is a mistake in one or other of these figures, but in either case there can be no doubt that the sale is worse than last week, when 1s. 6¾d. per rupee only received 15 per cent. ; and the market here has continued weak, with much more willingness to buy than sell. Very few bills are offering, and it is difficult therefore to gauge rates exactly, but while quoting 1s. 6 21-32d. for 3 months' Credits, a line of favourite paper could probably have been placed at 1s. 6 15-16d. Closing figures are :—

Bank Bills on demand	1s. 6 25-32d.	per rupee
Do. Telegraphic	1s. 6 27-32d.	,,
Do. three months' sight	1s. 6 27-32d.	,,
Credits ,, ,, ,, ...	1s. 6 31-32d.	,,
France ,, ,, ,, ...	2·01.	,,

Bar Silver in London is still quoted by Reuter at 49 3-16d., but we hear from private sources that there are buyers at 49¼d., and we even hear of some messages giving 49 5-16d. per oz. The shipments for the week to this port are given at £70,000.

The Government Gazette issued to-day gives the following statement of silver in the Mint :—

	Rs.
Balance in hand on 29th June	1,02,15,044
Silver received during the week.....	29,10,345
	1,31,25,389
Deduct new coin paid during week.....	23,05,028
	107,75,361
Silver belonging to private individuals.	15,15,624
	1,22,90,985
Last week.....	1,38,46,878

The imports of bullion during the past week have been in round figures 24 lakhs in silver and 8 lakhs in gold.

GOVERNMENT PAPER to-day has been, if anything, a trifle firmer. Fours for cash have hardened up again to Rs. 98 15-16 to Rs. 99, and for delivery in a month Rs. 98 13-16 is quoted. Fours-and-a-half are back to Rs. 101. From Calcutta Reuter quotes Rs. 98⅜ and Rs. 99½ respectively.

SHARES continue dull. Spinning and Weaving Mills are decidedly weaker again, the stoppage of the rains causing renewed want of confidence. A very general decline of Rs. 5 to Rs. 10 per share is quoted, with few buyers at that. Press shares are also tending weaker.

UNDER authority from the Government of India, the MUNICIPAL COMMISSIONER for the City of Bombay hereby notifies that, on behalf of the Municipal Corporation, he is PREPARED TO RECEIVE TENDERS up to noon on Saturday, the 18th July, 1885, for a LOAN OF 10 LAKHS on the security of the General Revenue of the Bombay Municipality, subject to any prior charge in respect of balances of previous Loans not yet fully paid off.

1. Debentures for Rupees 500 each (form of which is as under) will be issued, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum, payable half-yearly.

2. The period of repayment of the Loan is 40 years, but it will be at the option of Tenderers to intimate at the time of tendering whether they desire the principal paid off by half-yearly instalments of such amounts as will liquidate the Loan at the expiration of that period. In the case of tenders in which no intimation to the above effect is given, it will be assumed that it is desired that the interest only shall be paid half-yearly, in which case a sufficient sum will be set aside half-yearly, and invested in such manner as may be authorised by the law for the time being in force, to provide for the repayment of the whole of the principal at the expiration of the said period of 40 years.

4. Preference will be given to Tenderers for the whole Loan, who may be willing to accept minute payments of fixed amounts in reduction of the principal debt.

5. Subscriptions will be received and Scrip Receipts for Debentures will be granted by the Bank of Bombay. Debentures will be issued in exchange for such Scrip Receipts as soon as possible after all the instalments have been paid.

6. Subject to the aforesaid limit of 34 lakhs, Tenders may be for sums of Rs. 500 or multiples of Rs. 500.

7. Each Tender must be addressed in the form annexed to this Notification, and enclosed in a sealed cover superscribed, "Tender for Municipal Sanitary Works Loans." The Municipal Commissioner does not bind himself to accept the lowest or any Tender or Tenders.

8. The amount of any accepted Tender or Tenders must be paid in to the Bank in equal instalments :—
One-third on or before 1st August 1885.
One-third more on or before 15th August 1885.
And the remainder on or before 1st September 1885.

9. Interest from 1st and 31st August 1885 will be paid in advance upon the amount of the first instalment, and from 15th to 31st August 1885 upon the amount of the second instalment. From 1st September 1885 interest will be payable half-yearly on 1st March and 1st September in each year.

10. Tenderers must pay into the Bank of Bombay to the credit of the Municipal Corporation a sum equal to two per cent. of the Loan offered. Bank receipts for such deposit must accompany each tender.

11. If the Tender be accepted, the deposit will be taken in part of the last instalment, but it will be forfeited if after the acceptance of the Tender the aforesaid is not fully taken up. A cash deposit may, after the Tender in support of which it is made is accepted, be replaced by Government Paper of equal value at the then market rate.

12. The deposit on Tenders which may not be accepted will be returned on application.

13. In the case of equality of approved Tenders above the amount required a pro rata allotment will be made.

14. The rate stated in a Tender must not contain any fraction of an anna, and if a rate containing any fraction of an anna is inserted in any Tender such fraction will be struck out and the Tender treated as if the rate did not contain any fraction of an anna.

15. In order to avoid mistakes a separate Tender must be made at each rate tendered, and a separate deposit must be made in respect of each Tender.

The Bombay Gazette

FRIDAY, JULY 10, 1885.

IF the announcement of the Secretary of State for War that the Government intend to propose a vote of thanks to the British forces engaged in the recent operations in the Soudan may be taken as an intimation that the curtain falls finally upon that misadventure, the public will have an additional reason for being satisfied with it. The officers and soldiers who were engaged in those arduous operations deserve the thanks of the country for the devotion and heroism with which the African sands and the murderous heat were encountered, while searching for an enemy whose recklessness and fanaticism made them redoubtable antagonists. The whole policy of the recent operations was an inexcusable blunder, but for that the late Government is to be held responsible. The troops employed did their duty without flinching, and sustained fully the traditional reputation of British troops. This fact will be rightly placed on record by a vote of the House of Commons. Apart from the general plan of operations, for which the most eminent of our generals takes the credit or the blame, there are only two matters on which there has been serious controversy, namely, the surprise at Macneil's zareba, and the non-success of Sir Charles Wilso 's effort to reach Khartoum in time to rescue General Gordon. Mr. Charles Williams, a war correspondent of long experience, arraigned General Wilson as having failed in his duty by delaying for three days the advance on Khartoum, which it was imperative to accomplish without an hour's loss of time The case was dressed very strenuously. The impeached general replied in a despatch sent to Lord Wolseley, who transmitted it to the Government with the observation that it required no comment. The general showed clearly enough that there were reasons for the delay. There were rumours that Arab forces were marching in the direction of Metemmeh, and he considered it dangerous to leave the position near that stronghold of the enemy, until he had ascertained whether the rumours were true. A part of the delay was due to carrying out General Gordon's orders to change the crews of the steamers. It is to be regretted that Lord Wolseley did not give his opinion upon the important question whether the reasons set forth by General Wilson justified the delay of three days in commencing the voyage to Khartoum. To most people it will perhaps appear that the great risk of all was that of arriving too late at Khartoum, and that all minor dangers should have been disregarded with a view to combining every means of obviating it. General Wilson will, however, be probably acquitted of anything more than an error of judgment in this matter. There was room for mistake either way, and he committed a mistake which a more eager and ambitious officer would probably have avoided. As regards Sir John Macneil's misadventure, the balance of opinion inclines against him. We see that an officer who is evidently well acquainted with all that took place on that unfortunate Sunday, maintains that every arrangement had been made to guard against a surprise, and that the attack, when delivered, would have had no chance of even momentary success if the 17th Bengal Native Infantry had not broken and fled through the camp. The officer forgets to mention that the regiment in question was broken, not by the enemy, but by some hundreds of camels stampeding through it in terror of the first onset of the shrieking Arabs. He does not explain why none of the force were in readiness to meet the attack, most of the men being at their dinner, and others being at work some two hundred yards from their piled arms. While affecting coyness in mentioning the 17th Bengal N I., he carefully indicates the nature of his allegation against that regiment, namely, that it fled from the enemy. But he says nothing of the splendid conduct of the 28th Bombay N. I., which received the Arab charge in line, and by steady firing prevented the enemy from ever closing upon their ranks at all. There is no reason why the troops which bore the brunt of that sudden and impetuous onset should not be included in the vote of thanks about to be awarded. We would prefer to leave it to experts to pronounce a decisive opinion upon the generalship of Sir John Macneil on that occasion. Whatever his errors may have been, his personal intrepidity and his coolness when a catastrophe seemed imminent deserve recognition.

THE President of the Bombay Chamber of Commerce laid down a sound principle when he spoke of the advantage of the Chamber not putting itself in evidence too often ; for it is doubtful if a President who had frequently to address it on topics of current commercial interest could perform the task as thoroughly as Mr. Forbes Adam did on Wednesday. A society which speaks seldom and yet takes care that when it does so it shall speak with effect is in the long run pretty certain of exerting its legitimate influence in public affairs ; and one reads this address of Mr. Forbes Adam with a shrewd suspicion that it will be listened to in the quarters where some at least of its sentences were expected to tell. Even the passages which belong more to the domain of "high politics" than to that of commerce claim attention. The "wandering minstrels on many platforms," as the Governor of Bombay would call them, will be busy enough during the coming months, but they will not all glance with as clear a vision as Mr. Forbes Adam's at frontier problems. He has set forth the lessons of the late crisis in a fashion which may be commended to those who look back upon it only as a wasted opportunity for fighting out our differences with Russia. There must be no more "stupid and embarrassing engagements," no more taking up of useless positions, which Russia cannot be bound to respect, and which it would be sheer madness to go to war for. Eminent authorities at home—most eminent, in fact, they have become since the "wandering minstrels" of a month or two ago have become responsible for the peace and policy of the Empire—might have done worse than consult a plain merchant in Bombay before they talked about making a casus belli of the attack upon Penjdeh. And if Mr. Forbes Adam's observations on this subject could serve no other purpose, they will at least let it be seen that here in Bombay we are not conscious of that consternation which was reported at the time to have overcome public opinion in India when it was known that the Government had decided against "sheer madness of that kind." Bombay opinion has a character of its own, as clearly differentiated from that of other Presidency towns, as is the opinion of London from that of the provinces—a difference in mood and temperament perhaps, rather than in principles. We possess our souls in patience while others are raising high the note of alarm, and we generally find that in the long run

THE CALCUTTA SANITARY COMMISSION.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, JULY 9.

The Bengal Government have published an elaborate communication in reply to the opinion of the local municipal commissioners on the various recommendations of the Sanitary Commission appointed by Government. The tone and language of the reply are moderate and conciliatory. Sir Rivers Thompson, while recognising the substantial progress in sanitary matters made by the Corporation, considers that it is impossible to ignore the fact, which is brought out clearly by the proceedings of the Commission, by the evidence recorded in it, and by this report, that very much still remains to be done to remove the causes of preventible diseases; and so long as these are permitted to exist, the commissioners cannot be held free from responsibility for the continuance within the town of sources of disease whose effects are not controverted and whose eradication is in their power.

The Government of India, concurring in these views, says it is not satisfied that this lamentable exacerbation of cholera during the year was not due to preventible causes, and trusts that the Corporation will spare neither trouble nor expense to complete their sanitary reforms, which experience proves to be the only safeguard against cholera and zymotic diseases. The Governor-General in Council regrets to observe that the progress made up to the close of the year under report in bustee reclamation was so slow, and that the work done in the direction of improving the drainage showed considerable falling off. The decrease in expenditure on vaccination was also to be regretted, considering that the mortality was higher than during the last three years.

STEPS have been taken by His Grace the Archbishop of Goa to establish at Pangim a college for females, the want of which was keenly felt by the advocates of education for women. The college will be under the direction of two European schoolmistresses.

GOVERNMENT has sanctioned the establishment of a ferry across the Ambavni Creek, between the villages of Gorat and Borivli in Taluka Salsette of the Thana District, and declared it to be a public ferry under the provisions of section 2 of Bombay Act II. of 1868. This measure is no doubt a boon to a certain extent, but the ferry is sadly in need of approaches.

THE Rev. J. F. Steele, M.A., missionary of the Irish Presbyterian Church at Anand, has been licensed to solemnise marriages under the provisions of the Indian Marriage Act, and the Rev. M. B. Nikambe, Pastor of the Ambroli Native Church at Bombay in connection with the Free Church of Scotland Mission, has been granted a license to solemnise marriages between native Christians.

THE services of Mr. H. A. Acworth, C.S., were placed at the disposal of the Bombay Municipal Corporation for employment as Assistant Municipal Commissioner from 29th ult. Mr. Acworth's appointment as Deputy Municipal Commissioner will have effect from the date of the Viceroy's assent to the Bill authorising it, viz., 2nd inst. Mr. H. L. Wright is appointed substantive pro tem. Deputy Collector of Salt Revenue, vice Mr. Acworth.

THE flag of the United States will be displayed at half-mast above the United States Consulate from Tuesday the 7th until Thursday the 16th instant, both days inclusive, a period of ten days, as a mark of respect to the memory of the Hon. Frederick Theodore Frelinghuysen, lately the Secretary of State of the United States, who died at his home in Newark, in the State of New Jersey, on the 20th May last. This mark of respect is in accordance with the orders of the Hon. Secretary of State, State Department, Washington.

THE Viceroy having sanctioned the Bengal Bill for the raising of money by the Port Trust in prosecution of the Calcutta dock, an up-country paper suggests that we may expect shortly to hear of a loan being put upon the Calcutta market, under the guarantee of the Government of India. "The total amount required by the Port Trust for dock purposes is considerable, and will probably not fall short of twenty lakhs. The Bombay Port Trust, too, when they have finally settled with Government the terms of their new loan, will also be coming into the market for a very large sum." There is much virtue in the "when" of the last sentence.

THE Governor of Ceylon is evidently no favourite in the island over which he presides. The Ceylon Times, in noticing his recent departure in the "Nuwara Eliia," observes:—Every Civil Servant and public officer throughout the colony will doubtless breathe more freely for the next few months. Had Sir Arthur Gordon's vigilance and activity been accompanied by that courtesy and that consideration for the feelings of subordinates which should actuate the minds of all true gentlemen, we should have nothing to say about it, but the suaviter in modo has not accompanied the fortiter in re.

ACTIVE operations have been resumed in connection with the Madras Harbour Works. The manufacture of concrete blocks, of all sorts of curious shapes, is progressing rapidly, the average weight of each block being thirty tons. Stores of all sorts are constantly arriving from England, such as cement, rails, fish-plates, apparatus for dropping blocks at random to form "reverse chequers," chains, crabs, and boilers. Divers are constantly at work levelling the base for the new foundations of the North Pier, and thousands of tons of rubble are being placed in the sea in the line of the new rubble base of both piers. The new line of work is being carefully set out by means of beacons made fast to the bottom. A twin craft is also being prepared to pick up, if possible, the loose blocks of the ruined work. At the Pallavaram quarries the lines are being rapidly extended with a view to increasing the daily number of trains from four to eight. Most unfortunately, says the Madras Mail, during this sudden pressure of work there occurred the death of Mr. Bernard more, assistant engineer of the works, followed in six days by the sudden death of his head-clerk, while three of the English executive staff were on the sick list, two from accidents occurring on the works.

NEWSPAPER copyright is also troubling the authorities in Japan. A notification has been issued forbidding newspapers to publish leading articles from contemporary columns without consent until ten days have elapsed from the date of original publication. It is understood that this prohibition is directed against a regular system of piracy which lately came into vogue.

THE Indian Daily News is still doubtful, despite the recent report of a special committee, upon the sanitary and the engineering aspects of the Kidderpore docks scheme, and it gives reasons for its doubts. Besides this it says:—This system of rushing headlong into large undertakings is a mischievous one, and ought to be discouraged. At Bombay, as well as at Calcutta, the Port authorities have spent large sums of money upon works which have had to be stopped here, and may have to be stopped at Bombay. It ought not to be allowed that the Secretary of State should be committed in a measure to what may prove to be distasteful proposals by the fact that a considerable amount of public money has already been sunk, and must be thrown away unless he will consent to facilitate the scheme being carried through. We do not say the Bombay Port Trust has received altogether fair treatment at the hands of the Government of India and the Secretary of State in the matter of its dock loan; but we do consider that a mistake was made in proceeding with the work before all such details were settled. The Bombay scheme has much to recommend it that the Calcutta project has not. There are no sanitary objections and no engineering apprehensions in regard to it, and experience has proved that extended dock accommodation at Bombay is required and will be certain to pay. Nevertheless, even in that case, it was working on an unsound system to start the scheme before ways and means had been fully considered and provided for.

A PEKIN correspondent states that last month a Censor memorialised, asking that, in view of the present critical position of affairs, greater facilities for travelling abroad might be given to men of talent. The Emperor of China referred this memorial to the Tsungli Yamen, which has now suggested that the heads of the Hanlin College and the six Boards be instructed to recommend to the Yamen any persons who are fitted for foreign travel by special knowledge of mechanics, surveying, and strategy, and are endowed with firmness, honesty, and patience. The Yamen, after strict examination, will report to the Throne, and these persons will be sent to various foreign countries, where they will be under the control of the Resident Ministers. Their expenses and pay will be provided by the Yamen.

IT is officially announced in one of the newspapers at Yokohama that the whole of the Government employés in a large department would in future be required to don Europe clothing. In noticing a ball recently given by the Marquis and Marchioness Nabeshima and the Marquis and Marchioness Mayeda, at the Rokumeikwan, a paper received by yesterday's mail mentions that a noticeable feature of the evening was the very considerable gathering of the aristocracy of the country, many of the ladies, who had been assiduously acquiring the art of dancing after the foreign style, making their débuts on the occasion. It is gallantly added that most of them danced well and with spirit, and that their toilettes were generally characterised by irreproachable taste.

THE s. s. Glencoe, which has arrived at Singapore from London, had on board a shipwrecked Arab who was picked up in the Gulf of Aden. Captain Duke states that on the 4th ultimo, when steaming down the Gulf through a rough sea, a man was seen clinging to a floating spar. The vessel was immediately directed towards it, and the man taken on board, when he was found to be badly cut about the head and bruised on the body. He was unable to speak English, but made the captain understand by signs that the vessel he and four other men were in had been capsized. While the Glencoe was picking up this man, another steamer about two miles astern was seen to lower a boat and pick up another man from some wreckage. Careful examination was made of all the floating wreckage about, but none of the other missing men could be discovered. The rescued man, when interrogated by an Arab in Penang, stated that he had been two days in the water. Considering that the Gulf of Aden swarms with sharks, his escape may be considered as remarkable.

APPEAL AGAINST MUNICIPAL ASSESSMENT.

KESSOWJEE JADOWJEE, the millionaire, appealed, before Mr. Cooper, sitting as Revenue Judge yesterday, at the Fort Police Court, against the assessment by the Municipality of certain vacant land owned by him and situated in the Native Town. Mr. Dhurrumsey appeared for the appellant, and Mr. Crawford for the Municipal Commissioner. Mr. Dhurrumsey, in stating his case, said that the Municipality have assessed a vacant piece of land belonging to the appellant. His client had a house in Cazee Syed-street, but in October last he was served with a notice to pull it down. After one or two of the upper storeys had been removed the rest fell down. The Municipality had continued to assess the property, but looking at the figure—Rs. 306—it seemed to him that they had assessed the vacant land. He contended that they were not allowed to do so. He pointed out section 70 of the Municipal Act, which contemplated the assessment of houses, buildings, or lands which may reasonably be expected to yield, or are capable of yielding, an income. He supposed that the Municipality assessed the land because they treated it as a site for a house. As it stood it was a site, but the question to be considered was whether it was capable of yielding an income, and could be assessed, and whether it was land that could be let from year to year. His client had made an application to the Municipal Commissioner for permission to build a house. As soon as the permission was granted the building would be commenced. He submitted that the land could not be let, and was not properly capable of beneficial occupation. To support his contention Mr. Dhurrumsey referred to the cases of the Mersey docks. Although the Municipal Act empowered the Municipal Commissioner to assess vacant land, he submitted that in this case the land, not being capable of any beneficial occupation or of yielding any income, could not be assessed; and he would ask his honour to cancel the assessment. MoolchundNuthoo, KessowjeeJadowjee's moonim, was called and stated, among other things, that there were two or three rooms left of the house, which were used to store old mats and coir in. One of the rooms was locked, but contained nothing but materials to construct a boarding around the remnants of the house when permission to build had been obtained. Mr. Crawford, having addressed the court, his honour remarked that it seemed to him that the question he really had to consider was whether the land was capable of beneficial occupation during the time that it was being built upon. Mr. Crawford submitted it was not. It might be one, but the real question was, in his opinion, whether or not the appellant was entitled to claim complete exemption because he contemplated building upon the land. Mr. Cooper observed that the principal question was whether it was necessary for the appellant to keep the land vacant until he gets the sanction, or builds without it. Mr. Crawford said the appellant was not keeping it vacant. It was perfectly possible for him to find tenants for the rooms. The natives were not so particular, he imagined, as to mind one or two holes in the walls. His honour had in evidence that two of the rooms were partially occupied, and it was beyond question that the property was liable to assessment. The mere vacancy only allowed the appellant a refund of two-thirds; but it would not remove the liability of assessment altogether. In fact, he submitted his honour had no power to cancel the assessment, though he might consider that it was too much. His honour reserved judgment.

HIGH COURT.—JULY 9.

(Before the Hon. Mr. Justice PINHEY.)

DISPUTED MERCANTILE TRANSACTIONS.

MOOSA ABDUL LUTIFF AND ANOTHER vs. NURSINGDAS MULTANCHUND AND OTHERS.

THIS suit was brought to recover Rs. 30,211-13, together with interest thereon at 9 per cent. per annum from the 15th March last. Mr. Lang and Mr. Inverarity, instructed by Messrs. Macfarlane and Edgelow, appeared for the plaintiffs, and Mr. Jodu'bie Mr. Latham and Mr. Macpherson, instructed by Messrs. Jefferson, Bhaishunker, and Dinshah, for the defendants.

The plaintiffs, as merchants and commission agents, had large money dealings with the defendants from 1878 to 1884. At the end of the latter year a sum of Rs. 24,000 was found to be due by the plaintiffs; and on the defendants expressing a doubt as to their solvency, they accepted the defendants' accounts and paid the claim at once, in order to show that the rumour as to their solvency was unfounded. Sheikh Mahomed Abdul Lutiff died on the 14th May, 1884, leaving him surviving his brother, the plaintiff Moosa Abdul Lutiff, and an infant son, the plaintiff Abdul Lutiff, Sheikh Mahomed, his heirs. Moosa Abdul Lutiff afterwards commenced an examination of the books of his firm, when it was discovered that they had not received credit from the defendants for certain sums. In particular, the defendants had not credited them with pearls of the value of Rs. 400 and Rs. 160 sold by them to defendants. The latter, on being requested to rectify the mistakes in their account, declined to do so. On the 11th December, 1884, the defendants produced certain ledger accounts from which the plaintiffs discovered that they had improperly debited them with a sum of Rs. 5,000, and had omitted to credit them with a sum of Rs. 15,000. The defendants did not produce certain of their ledger accounts for 1879-80, which, the plaintiffs believed, they had fraudulently kept back; and they were now engaged in tampering with their books in order to show that they were never paid the sum of Rs. 15,000 by the plaintiffs, who, on the other hand, claimed a balance of Rs. 30,211-13 to be now due to them.

The defence was that the dealings of the defendants with the plaintiffs consisted entirely of loans and payments made by them as sarofis for the plaintiffs. They denied that any sums were paid them by the plaintiffs without an examination of accounts or in order to refute a rumour as to their solvency. The accounts were adjusted in the usual way, and the plaintiff Moosa Abdul Lutiff signed an acknowledgment of the correctness thereof. The defendants denied an improper debit of Rs. 5,000 or omission to credit plaintiffs with a payment of Rs. 15,000, or that they had fraudulently withheld any book, or intended to tamper with any books of account.

The hearing of the suit was proceeded with.

PROPITIATING A GODDESS WITH HUMAN HEADS.

PARTICULARS of an extraordinary murder which is reported from Anjeenaud, in Travancore, are given in the Western Star. The place is a small district lying near the Pandy composed of a few villages; and the Travancore Sirkar has appointed a Manager over the district. The inhabitants are chiefly a wild tribe speaking Tamil. Some three months back the Manager reported to the District Magistrate, Cardamom Hills, that three murders were committed, whereupon one Mr. Fernandez was ordered to the place to make inquiries. Accordingly Mr. Fernandez, the Station Officer, and four constables went up; and with the assistance of the Manager succeeded in seizing the three murderers. There were father, son, and son-in-law. These three men were the dread of the place, and the Police at great risk to their lives apprehended them. However, one fellow, the son-in-law, by name Mannan, managed to get handcuffs on, jumped over a precipice and escaped. After these fellows get into the jungle it is easier to track a wild deer than track one of them. The other two were brought to the Peermerd jail and their confessions were received by the 2nd Class Magistrate. They admit the murder pointblank. They say that, as there was no rain, their cultivation was a failure; and therefore that if nine human heads were cut off and buried in the reservoir, which irrigates their cultivation, this would propitiate their goddess Meenachee, and all would then go right. While in this state of mind they heard from the witness that three persons from another village and a different caste from themselves were encamped on the banks of the stream close by, and engaged in fishing. On receiving this news the three murderers armed with fine heavy choppers, sharp as razors (these also have been brought up), went to the spot. The old villain, the father, went up to an old woman, whom he found quietly fishing, and deliberately taking her by the hair of her head, with one blow severed the head from the trunk. Seeing this an old man, her husband, and a young girl, her daughter, ran away; but they were soon overtaken, the old man by Maaree, who escaped, and the young girl by the son; and their heads, too, were chopped off after some hacking. After this brutal deed was done, the murderers left the trunks of their victims, where they fell, and carried away the heads, and offered the same at their Meenachee covil, after which they threw the same into the reservoir. The murderers say that they never knew their victims before, nor had they committed the deed with any other intention but to propitiate their goddess, and get rain to fill their reservoir. The case is being investigated by Mr. Maltby.

DISTINGUISHED CONDUCT IN THE FIELD.

PRIVATE RALPH, of the 2nd Battalion, Royal Fusiliers, and Private Barrett, of the 1st Battalion, Oxfordshire Light Infantry, are to be congratulated on the award to them by the Queen, on the recommendation of H.R.H. the Field Marshal Commanding-in-Chief, and H.E. the Commander-in-Chief of Madras, of the Silver Medal for "distinguished conduct in the field" on the 29th December last, when, while under fire, they laid charges of dynamite against the doorway of a temple at Trikallur, in which a band of Moplah fanatics had taken up a position. According to the letter of a correspondent who witnessed the gallant conduct of these two men:—On the evening of the 29th, the first party of troops under Lieutenant Day, Oxfordshire Light Infantry, arrived. The Moplahs had barred themselves in the inner quadrangle of the temple, and had loopholed the doors and roofs. After a preliminary reconnaissance, in which Lieutenant Day was severely wounded in the chest, the building was formed in on all sides by the soldiers, and the police under Major During the night more troops arrived, including another party of the Oxfordshire Light Infantry under Yardley, and of the Royal Fusiliers under Captain Maxwell. Before daybreak, Captain Curtis, Oxfordshire Regiment, bringing some dynamite arrived, and took command. After some delay, occasioned by the fact that no one on the spot understood the use of dynamite, the attack commenced; covered by the fire of parts of the troops who were posted behind a wall which ran completely round the temple, and under a smart fire from the upper storied building, the gates of the enclosure were blown in with dynamite charges. The inner enclosure were then loopholed from outside and held. . . . During the affair one private of the Oxfordshire Regiment was killed and one wounded. Another correspondent wrote:—The constables were ordered to go up and place the dynamite, but the gallant bobbies saw fit to refuse obedience, whereupon some of the Britishers went forward and under cover of an unceasing fire, in which 2,000 cartridges were spent, and placing the dynamite came back amid the cheers of their comrades. When an officer is wounded in duty he is usually allowed what is commonly called blood money, and we are pleased to find that Lieutenant Day is no exception to the rule, and that he is to receive a gratuity of three months' pay.—Madras Mail.

THE RAIL-BORNE TRADE OF THE BOMBAY PRESIDENCY.

THE returns for the quarter ended 31st March last are published as a supplement in yesterday's Government Gazette:—

As these returns relate to the time of the year when the season commences for the collection of the crops forming the principal articles of trade such as cotton, wheat, grain, &c., and when there is considerable commercial activity, it is not surprising that they show a considerable increase over the traffic of the preceding quarter. It will be noticed, however, that, as compared with the corresponding quarter of the previous year, there has also been a remarkable improvement in the traffic. The number of vessels which obtained there clearance at this port to foreign countries during the quarter under review amounted to 151 as against 80 in that preceding and 104 in the corresponding quarter of the last year. The aggregate result is that the number of outgoing vessels has increased by 90 and 50 per cent, respectively over the departures recorded in the preceding and previous corresponding quarters.

That the cargo carried by these vessels has also increased to a considerable extent will be seen from the following table prepared from the weekly trade returns published by the Bombay Chamber of Commerce:—
